

Opioid Prescribing: Pain Management in a New Era

Wednesday March 8, 2017 | 5pm-7pm

McLeod Hall Auditorium • UVA School of Nursing
Charlottesville, VA

SAVE THE DATE

Free Parking
under McLeod

Join us for a 2 -hour course on opioid prescribing that meets the new Virginia requirements for opioid training.

This course will be available as a live conference in Charlottesville OR via teleconference to your organization (contact us for details)

- Registration fee $50/person

Register Today:
www.cmevillage.com

Contact Information:
Jann Balmer PhD, RN
Director
Continuing Medical Education
jbalker@virginia.edu

HIGHLIGHTS

- Dealing with the jungle of pain, opiates, substance abuse - Tim Short, MD
- Overview of opioids- Margaret Barclay ACNP
- Prescribing opiates to the patient with a history of substance abuse- Julio Silvestre MD
- FSMB guidelines vs CDC best practices: opioid prescribing - Robin Hamill- Ruth MD
- Pain Mechanisms , alternative medications and "why"- Robert Goldstein MD