Program Description

Running Medicine 2015 will focus evidence based approach to proximal and distal components of common lower quarter injuries in the running athlete; including medical management, rehabilitation, surgical management, and gait retraining. Friday's conference schedule will be didactic in nature, with case studies and ample time for audience engagement and Q&A. The conference will conclude on Saturday morning with series of 4 lab-based sessions.

Saturday sessions are limited to 100 participants. There is an extra fee for lab sessions.

Target Audience

Primary care physicians, sports medicine physicians, physical medicine and rehabilitation physicians, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, physical therapists, athletic trainers, coaches and other professionals interested in maintaining and promoting the health of runners.

Goals and Objectives

Following this conference, participants will be better able to:

1. Discuss the clinical presentation of, treatment for, and return to exercise recommendations for patients with Osteitis Pubis and Achilles Tendinopathy
2. Describe common injuries/disease of the hip and pelvis, their diagnosis and treatment
3. Outline surgical management options for common hip injuries in the running athlete
4. Discuss proximal and distal pathomechanics of common injuries in the running athlete
5. Describe traditional sports nutrition and guidelines
6. Discuss effective nutrition recommendations for recovery and performance
7. Identify effective clinical and lab gait analysis tools

Syllabus

In an effort to be more environmentally responsible, this year's syllabus will be available electronically and can be downloaded beginning Monday, March 5, 2015. The download link will be sent to your email address. Please make sure that you register with a valid email address. We will not print a paper syllabus.

Location

The conference will be held at University of Virginia Darden School of Business, 100 Darden Boulevard, Charlottesville, Virginia. Lab sessions will be held at the North Grounds Recreation Center, adjacent to Darden. Parking is available at Darden.

Disclosures

Disclosure of faculty financial affiliations

The University of Virginia School of Medicine, as an ACCME accredited provider, endorses and strives to comply with the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) Standards of Commercial Support, Commonwealth of Virginia statutes, University of Virginia policies and procedures, and associated federal and private regulations and guidelines on the need for disclosure and monitoring of proprietary and financial interests that may affect the scientific integrity and balance of content delivered in continuing medical education activities under our auspices.

The University of Virginia School of Medicine requires that all CME activities accredited through this institution be developed independently and be scientifically rigorous, balanced and objective in the presentation/discussion of its content, theories and practices.

All faculty presenters participating in an accredited CME activity are expected to disclose relevant financial relationships with commercial entities occurring within the past 12 months (such as grants or research support, employee, consultant, stock holder, member of speakers bureau, etc.). The University of Virginia School of Medicine will employ appropriate mechanisms to resolve potential conflicts of interest to maintain the standards of fair and balanced education to the participant. Questions about specific strategies can be directed to the Office of Continuing Medical Education, University of Virginia School of Medicine, Charlottesville, Virginia.

The faculty and staff of the University of Virginia Office of Continuing Medical Education have no financial affiliations to disclose.

Disclosure of discussion of non-FDA approved uses for pharmaceutical products and/or medical devices

The University of Virginia School of Medicine, as an ACCME provider, requires that all faculty presenters identify and disclose any off-label uses for pharmaceutical and medical device products. The University of Virginia School of Medicine recommends that each physician fully review all the available data on new products or procedures prior to clinical use.
